1. How many books of Sheikh Imran Hosein have you read so far? Which one of them do you think you have understood the best?

2. Please state the most important questions you have had from the reading of Sheikh Imran Hosein's books, and which you think are not answered until now. If you have too many of these questions, please list only 10 that you think are the most important.

3. Please write two essays of not more than one page each (about 500 words) summarizing the following two books:

- 1. Jerusalem in the Quran,
- 2. An Islamic View of Gog and Magog in the Modern World.

4. What in the whole study of Islamic Eschatology that interests you most?

5. From your current understanding of Islamic Eschatology, if you are asked to list down what not to do as opposed to what to do in responding to the challenges of Aakhir az zaman, what would your list be (in order of importance)?

6. Do you complete reciting the entire Quran every lunar month?

7. How much of the Qur'an do you know by heart?

8. Do you recite Surah al-Kahf every yaum al-jumuah?

9. Please write an essay of not more than one page explaining your intention to join the institute.

10. How much time every week can you dedicate to the study of Islamic Eschatology?

11. How much time every week can you dedicate to the learning of other sciences, Islamic or otherwise, that may be necessary to advance in your study of Islamic Eschatology?

12. Briefly describe your reading habits, what was the last book you read and when did you complete it. What book are you currently reading?

13. What is your understanding of Social Media?

14. Do you have any background in the study of poetry in any language? If yes, which poets have you read? This question is important because of Maulana Imran Hosein's use of language.

15. How much of history have you read/studied including biographies?

Please submit the answers to the above questionnaire (If you have written your answers on separate files, please clearly mark them and attach them to your email with a clear indication of which question they refer to) together with your CV/Resume.

Your CV should contain information about your educational background, qualifications, employment history and status, personal information like name, age, race, nationality (what passport you hold), marital status, country of origin and residence, etc., and other miscellaneous but important information like the number of languages you know.

Please send the information hasbullah@ieschatology.org.
